- Higher Level Skills Program

MISSION

The Learning Collaborative's (TLC) Mission is to build a reputation within the Australian Vocational Education and Training Industry as the Registered Training Organisation (RTO) partner of choice. Offering high quality complaint training courses with the resources and infrastructure capable of meeting learners and partners needs alike.

VISION

To provide a platform that facilitates the provision of high quality, industry specialised, nationally accredited training of students using extremely capable Trainers, Training Partners , assessors and training administration personnel.

To ultimately provide a holistic training solution from training through to employment using the latest IT systems to streamline processes hence our Tag line.

WHAT WE DO

The Learning Collaborative successfully delivers training programs to thousands of students across Australia via our corporate and extensive business partnering network.

Under the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF), TLC has established partnerships with registered and non-registered organisations offering a broad range of training and assessment services therefore increasing people's access to nationally recognised qualifications.

Establishing a TLC partnership arrangement provides all parties an opportunity to share skills, effort and resources for mutual benefit, thus reducing costs by achieving economies of scale. Entering into this type of agreement with TLC, partners can deliver nationally recognised training or assessment services on behalf of the RTO, with TLC remaining responsible for compliance with the AQF.

TLC works with our Partners to ensure that the skill, knowledge and attitudes developed throughout the learning journey have been identified by industry, for industry. Therefore whether the learner is looking for a job, a promotion or a change in career; they will develop a set of competencies that sees them 'employable' and nationally recognised across every Australian state and territory.

WHAT WE VALUE

COMMUNICATION

- Clear and open dialogue
- Transparency in decisions
- Expediency of responses

OUR POINT OF DIFFERENCE

The Learning Collaborative can help your business with:

- Identifying and accessing sources of funding.
- Identification of key stakeholders to become more competitive.
- Navigation through the vocational education and training system.
- Management of the administrative work involved in learning and development.
- Meeting your training needs by providing flexible, customised and tailored programs that align with your training delivery strategy.
- Co-branding all training materials.
- Maintaining your delivery schedule by holding an extensive scope of registration.
- Flexibility in training through a range of partnership options.

PARTNERING WITH US

The Learning Collaborative offers two types of partnering agreements:

- Corporate Partnerships
- Training Organisation Partnerships

Corporate Partnerships

TLC's corporate partners access TLC's support to gain national recognition for their in-house training programs. This also gives them an opportunity to access Queensland government funding, available to TLC as a Pre-Qualified Supplier.

Businesses with a strong training culture and an established in-house training program will benefit from this business model.

Training Organisation Partnerships

RTO partnerships offer a range of benefits to industry and allow specialist skills to be taught using qualified trainers with the required industry and training vocational knowledge and skills.

Our Partners are required to set high quality standards at all times and are monitored throughout all stages of the student lifecycle.
